

JNU Academic Events

Jaipur National University organized a Conclave in collaboration with The National Academy of Sciences, India where renowned faculties from AIIMS, ICMR, NII & NIN jointly planned a road map for health research, prevention and control of major diseases in Rajasthan. Dignitaries present were Dr Manju Sharma, Former Secretary, Dept of Biotechnology, Dr VM katoch, Former Director general, ICMR, Dr Ravikant, Dean, AIIMS, Rishikesh and many more were present.

In accordance with the regulations of Medical Council of India, JNUIMSRC organizes regular Mentor and Mentee sensitization programmes. These programmes are beneficial in maintaining a positive environment of academics and ensure discipline and develop a culture of obedience amongst students.

A curriculum sensitization workshop was organized for the faculties of Various medical colleges of Jaipur in collaboration with Dept of Pharmacology and Medical Education Unit of JNUIMSRC. The Speaker was Prof SK Maullick, Professor, Pharmacology from AIIMS New Delhi, who has been instrumental in designing the New UG Curriculum. The workshop was attended by faculties of various medical colleges of Jaipur.

A CME was organized in association with Rajasthan Association of Plastic Surgeons in which the speaker was Dr. Bhagwat Swaroop Mathur, a renowned Plastic Surgeon from Chelmsford UK, who talked about advance Mammoplasty, Silicon Implantation and latest techniques of reconstruction of Breast Cancer patients.