

Equal Opportunity Cell

The Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) at Jaipur National University (JNU), Jaipur, is committed to fostering an inclusive and equitable academic environment for students from diverse backgrounds. The EOC ensures that students from Scheduled Castes (SCs), Scheduled Tribes (STs), Other Backward Classes (OBCs), minorities, women, and Persons with Disabilities (PwDs) receive the necessary support to access quality education without any discrimination. The cell actively works to promote diversity, accessibility, and fairness by implementing various initiatives such as scholarships, counseling, skill development programs, and awareness campaigns. It also addresses grievances related to discrimination and provides a platform for students to voice their concerns. By upholding the principles of equal opportunity and social justice, the EOC at Jaipur National University aims to create an empowering and supportive learning environment where every student can thrive academically and professionally.

Aims and Objectives
